FUN IN THE TUB

Don't waste time or water this winter – invest in the Baby Dam Bathwater Barrier. Its flexible edge and watertight seal means you can safely bathe your baby in shallow water while still looking after the environment. Simply place the Baby Dam in the tub, secure it in a position that suits you, check the seal at the bottom to ensure no water will escape, insert the plug and fill with water. Priced at $59.95, simply phone 03 9553 0024 to find a stockist near you.

SNAPPY NAPPY

Be eco-friendly from birth with this reusable cloth nappy, $38, from Rumparooz. With adjustable snaps allowing four-in-one sizing, this great nappy will fit cherubs weighing anywhere from three to 15kg. Two easy fastening options are available plus there's a double-inner gusset that helps to prevent leakage. See soulmothers.com.au.

HIP, HIP, HOORAY!

Save time and money with these gorgeous birth announcement packs from Cards4Me, which also contain a thank you note. Perfect for introducing your new bub to family and friends while thanking them for their gifts and general well-wishes. There's a choice of two sizes – square or postcard.
